Touch Brings Some Effects to Human

Masami SENOO

Abstract

The touch is extremely important to cosmetics, especially for skincare cosmetics, by which those qualities can be greatly influenced. In the same way, the touch is fundamental factor to human, for it is not only a physical characteristics of the samples but also, is a measures which senses even slightest changes on the body. Therefore, it is possible that the touch can bring some sort of effects among human bodies. Also, the touch holds the key to “comfortable feeling”. This essay gives an outline of the touch, and I would like to consider about the effect which the touch can cause.

Key words: touch, feel, effect, comfortable.
